

Georgia Jewelers Association Jewelry Design Contest

Eligibility

Anyone who is a GJA member or is employed by a GJA member and who is interested in designing and creating one-of-a-kind pieces of jewelry that says something of current styles and fashion.

Rules of Entry

- Pieces MUST be original designs created by the person entering the contest.
- All entries must be completed pieces made within the last two years.
- Pieces cannot have been mass produced or previously sold (unless Jeweler has written signed permission from client to use the pieces for the times required).
- Pieces should not be marked or hall-marked until after the judging. Previously sold pieces must have this information masked. We will mask marking or hallmarking to our discretion if you do not.
- Special displays are not allowed. All pieces entered must be on standard display material.

GJA reserves the right to disqualify any piece which does not meet all criteria.

Timetable

Judging

The entries will be judged by qualified people in the jewelry industry and the art communities.

When the pieces are being judged, they will be identified only by number.

The judges will select winning pieces on the basis of: Creative use of materials, Contemporary design, Wearability, Originality and Fashion merit.

Prizes

Plaques will be awarded to the First and Second Place pieces in each category and to the "Best of Show". All convention attendees are eligible to vote for the "People's Choice" category to select the most popular entry. Display of entries will be at the Convention on Sunday, April 2nd. Presentation of awards will be at the Sunday luncheon. Plaques will be awarded to all winners.
